

MOON JUMP

The Boy Who Bounced to the Moon

Coloring Book

Copyright © 2013 Aviva Gittle. All rights reserved.

“Timmy had always been spellbound by the moon.”

Copyright © 2013 Aviva Gittle. All rights reserved.

“A treasure, sir? Like pirate treasure?”

Copyright © 2013 Aviva Gittle. All rights reserved.

“Timmy went to class carrying a picture of a big, grey piece of Swiss cheese.”

“I’m ...” Fuh-dong, squeak. “Bouncing ...”

“Mom, can you teach me how to knit?”

Copyright © 2013 Aviva Gittle. All rights reserved.

“Now make sure you pack a lunch, young man.”

Copyright © 2013 Aviva Gittle. All rights reserved.

“I’m going to bounce to the moon!”

Copyright © 2013 Aviva Gittle. All rights reserved.

“Little boy, how did you get here?”

Copyright © 2013 Aviva Gittle. All rights reserved.

Timmy saw a huge, beautiful, green and blue jewel.

Copyright © 2013 Aviva Gittle. All rights reserved.

What would you build to get to the moon?

Copyright © 2013 Aviva Gittle. All rights reserved.

WHAT WOULD YOU BUILD TO GET TO THE MOON?

Name of your invention: _____

Describe your invention. How does it work? What materials would you use? Who would help you build it?

---

---

---

---

Draw a picture of your invention.

